

Please do not allow exemptions to the no call list in Wisconsin. Prior to this list, we would receive 1-10 telemarketing calls per day, usually at the dinner hour. Some of these callers were particularly rude and offensive when told we were not interested. Many would pretend to be personal friends when our children asked who was calling.

These calls are an invasion of our privacy. Thank you.